PREAMBLE

The Code of Conduct provides Council Members and staff of the Shire of Gnowangerup with consistent guidelines for an acceptable standard of professional conduct. The Code addresses in a concise manner the broader issue of ethical responsibility and encourages greater transparency and accountability in individual Local Governments.

The Code of Conduct is complementary to the principles adopted in the Local Government Act 1995, Regulations and local laws which incorporate four fundamental aims:

- (a) better decision-making by local governments;
- (b) greater community participation in the decisions and affairs of local governments;
- (c) greater accountability of local governments to their communities; and
- (d) more efficient and effective local government.

The Code of Conduct has been developed to assist Council Members and staff to:

- (a) understand the standard of conduct that is expected of them;
- (b) enable them to fulfil their statutory duty to act honestly and exercise a reasonable degree of due care and diligence; and
- (c) act in ways that enhance public confidence in the integrity of local government.

STATUTORY ENVIRONMENT

This Code of Conduct observes the statutory requirements of the Local Government Act 1995 (S5.103 - Codes of Conduct) and the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 (Regulations 34B and 34C).

RULES OF CONDUCT

Council Members acknowledge their activities, behaviour and statutory compliance obligations may be scrutinised in accordance with prescribed Rules of Conduct as described in the Local Government Act 1995 and Local Government (Rules of Conduct) Regulations 2007.

ROLE OF COUNCIL MEMBERS

The primary role of a Council Member is to represent the community, and the effective translation of the community’s needs and aspirations into a direction and future for the Shire of Gnowangerup. This will be the focus of the Council Member’s public life.

The Role of a Council Member as set out in section 2.10 of the Local Government Act 1995 follows:

- | |
| A Councillor - <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) represents the interest of electors, ratepayers and residents of the district; and(b) provides leadership and guidance to the community in the district; and(c) facilitates communication between the community and the council; and(d) participates in the local government’s decision-making processes at council and committee meetings; and(e) performs such other functions as are given to a councillor by this Act or any other written law. |
|--|

A Council Member is part of a team in which the community has placed its trust to make decisions on its behalf and the community is therefore entitled to expect high standards of conduct from its Council Members.

In fulfilling their various roles, Council Members’ activities will focus on:

- achieving a balance in the diversity of community views to develop an overall strategy for the future of the community;
- achieving sound financial management and accountability in relation to the Shire’s finances;
- ensuring that appropriate mechanisms are in place to deal with the prompt handling of resident’s concerns;
- working with other governments and organisations to achieve benefits for the community at both a local and regional level;
- being aware of the statutory obligations imposed on Council Members and the Shire.

In carrying out its functions, the Shire is to use its best endeavours to meet the needs of current and future generations through the integration of environmental protection, social advancement and economic prosperity.

ROLE OF STAFF

The role of staff is determined by the functions of the Chief Executive Officer as set out in section 5.41 of the Local Government Act 1995:

The CEO's functions are to -

- a) advise the council in relation to the functions of a local government under this Act and other written laws; and
- b) ensure that advice and information is available to the council so that informed decisions can be made; and
- c) cause council decisions to be implemented; and
- d) manage the day to day operations of the local government; and
- e) liaise with the mayor or president on the local government's affairs and the performance of the local government's functions; and
- f) speak on behalf of the local government if the mayor or president agrees; and
- g) be responsible for the employment, management supervision, direction and dismissal of other employees (subject to S5.37(2) in relation to senior employees); and
- h) ensure that records and documents of the local government are properly kept for the purpose of this Act and any other written law; and
- i) perform any other function specified or delegated by the local government or imposed under this Act or any other written law as a function to be performed by the CEO.

The CEO is responsible for the effective and efficient implementation of Council decisions and in turn all staff of the Shire are subject to the direction of the Chief Executive Officer.

Staff enable the functions of the Shire and Council to be performed, and they have an obligation to:

- give their attention to the business of Council while on duty;
- ensure that their work is carried out efficiently, economically and effectively;
- carry out lawful direction given by any person having authority to give such direction; and
- give effect to the lawful policies, decisions and practices of the Council, whether or not the employee agrees or approves of them.

RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN COUNCIL MEMBERS AND STAFF

An effective Councillor will work as part of the Council team with the Chief Executive Officer and other members of staff. That teamwork will only occur if Council Members and staff have a mutual respect and co-operate with each other to achieve the Council's corporate goals and implement the Council's strategies. To achieve this, Council members and staff need to observe their statutory and professional obligations which include, but are not limited to, the following:

COUNCILLORS

- accept that their roll is a leadership, not a management or administrative one;
- acknowledge that they have no capacity to individually direct members of staff to carry out particular functions;
- refrain from publicly criticizing staff in a way that casts aspirations on their professional competence and credibility.

STAFF

- respect the role and position of Councillors and implement to their best ability the decisions of Council;
- acknowledge that individual Councillors have no capacity to direct staff or become involved in day to day operations of the Shire of Gnowangerup;
- will not actively involve Councillors in any work instruction, direction, conflict, dispute or issue arising from their employment with the Shire of Gnowangerup;
- refrain from publicly criticizing Council decisions and/or individual Councillors in public forums or in situations where their personal views would be reasonably misinterpreted as the views of the Shire's Management and/or Administration.

ROLE OF VOLUNTEERS AND CONTRACTORS ASSISTING THE SHIRE OF GNOWANGERUP

- Volunteers assisting the Shire of Gnowangerup, and contractors who work alongside existing staff, are also expected to comply with the principles and where relevant, specific provisions of this Code of Conduct.
- While the word staff has been used throughout this document, this should be read as applying to volunteers and contractors who work alongside existing staff as well.

CONFLICT AND DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The nature of the Shire's business is conducive to conflicts of interest between a Council Member and a staff member's personal interests and the performance of their public or professional duties.

Genuine or perceived conflicts of interest may arise from a number of sources, including friends, relatives, close associates, financial investments, past employment and the like.

Although there is no right way to identify conflict of interest, a good starting point is to consider the following principles:

- Public duty versus private interests
Do I have personal or private interests that may conflict, or be perceived to conflict with my public duty?
- Potentialities
Could there be benefits for me now, or in the future, that might cast doubt on my objectivity?
- Perception
How will my involvement in the decision/action be viewed by others? Are there risks associated for me/my organisation?
- Proportionality
Does my involvement in the decision appear fair and reasonable in all circumstances?
- Presence of mind
What are the consequences if I ignore a conflict of interest? What if my involvement was questioned publicly?
- Promises
Have I made any promises or commitments in relation to the matter? Do I stand to gain or lose from the proposed action/decision?

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Council Members and staff will ensure that there is no actual (or perceived) conflict of interest between their personal interests and the impartial fulfilment of their professional duties.

Staff will not engage in private work with or for any person or body with an interest in a proposed or current contract with the Shire, without first making disclosure to the CEO. In this respect, it does not matter whether advantage is in fact obtained, as any appearance that private dealings could conflict with performance of duties must be scrupulously avoided.

Council Members and staff will lodge a written notice with the CEO describing an intention to undertake a dealing in land within the local government area or which may otherwise be in conflict with the Council's functions (other than purchasing the principal place of residence).

Council Members and staff who exercise recruitment or other discretionary functions will make disclosure before dealing with relatives or close friends and will disqualify themselves from dealing with those persons.

Staff will refrain from partisan political activities which could cast doubt on their neutrality and impartiality in acting in their professional capacity. An individual's rights to maintain their own political convictions are not impinged upon by this clause. It is recognised that such convictions cannot be a basis for discrimination and this is supported by anti-discrimination legislation.

FINANCIAL INTEREST

Council Members and staff must comply with the laws of governing financial interests, including the disclosure of financial interests set out in the Local Government Act 1995.

Sections 5.59 – 5.90 of the Local Government Act 1995 establish the requirements for disclosure by Council Members or staff of financial interest (including proximity interests).

The responsibility is on Council Members and staff to identify possible financial interests (including proximity interests), to determine whether an interest exists, and whether any statutory exemption applies.

Regulation 34C of the Local Government (Administration) Regulation 1996 contains the provisions relating to employees disclosing interests:
